

MAPPING SOUTH AMERICA: CHECKLIST

DUE: Tuesday, JANUARY 30

General Directions

1. Read ALL directions for each section before labeling your map. To complete this map, you will need Ultra fine-point Sharpie markers in red, black, blue, brown, and dark green along with a box of colored pencils and a ruler.
2. All labels should be made horizontally inside the item or, if the label won't fit, connected with a straight line from the label to the item. Labels with lines connecting to the spot can be put in the ocean or in the margin. No lines should cross over other lines. However, rivers and mountain range labels may follow the river/range. Do not write a label over or through another label.
3. MAPS to use – Textbook p. 216, 604; Atlas

Borders

Shade Central America using a brown colored pencil.

Countries and Territories (CAPITALS and Cities)

1. Lightly shade each country using different colored pencils. Alternate colors so that no countries touching each other have the same color.
2. Then label the countries using an Ultra fine-point black Sharpie. Do not write the name of the country over the location of the capital since you will be labeling that too.
3. Mark each capital city with a small red star and label the name of the city using an Ultra fine-point red Sharpie. Write small because the country name should be written larger than the capital.
4. All non-capital cities should be marked with a red dot and labeled with an Ultra fine-point red Sharpie.
